

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Will you please record your presence. All those not in the Chamber, please return to the Chamber so that we may proceed. Please look up to see if your light is illuminated and if not... No one is excused, so we should all be here. Looking for Senator Wesely, Senator Hannibal, Senator Lynch, Senator Robak, Senator Wesely. Looking for Senator Wesely and Senator Robak. We are all here. Please record your presence. For those of you who were late coming in, the question is to reconsider and a roll call vote has been requested in reverse order. Please hold your conversation down so that the Clerk may hear your response. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read roll call vote. See pages 469-70 of the Legislative Journal.) 17 ayes, 32 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to reconsider.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. The call is raised.

CLERK: Mr. President, I now have a priority motion, and that priority motion is to bracket LB 769 until nine o'clock January 24, 1990. It is offered by Senator Lindsay. Senator, may I treat this as unanimous consent request or is it a motion?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yes, we would ask unanimous consent to bracket till tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT: There is an objection. Do you move, Senator Lindsay?

SENATOR LINDSAY: I would withdraw the motion on that then.

PRESIDENT: You'll withdraw the motion, did you say?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Okay, it is withdrawn.

CLERK: In that event, Mr. President, we are back, I believe, to the discussion of Senator Bernard-Stevens' amendment.
